

Drivers of Change

Programme Board members have

- Part of one or more Programme Boards
- Participation in Programme Boards meetings three times a year
- A fixed relations manager
- Participating in project and human capital developments
- Advice and advantages concerning programmes and in-house training of our Business School
- In the spotlights at one of our own events
- Free access for 5 persons at the 'Wind Meets Gas' conference
- Free access to New Energy Coalition's annual transition lecture
- Free excursions and company visits
- Sharing of vacancies on the employability platform (incl. data analyses)
- Set up joint (European) labour market innovation projects
- Visibility on the New Energy Coalition website
- A New Energy Coalition onboarding information package
- All the privileges of community members

